

Minutes of 89th IASA Board meeting:
7th July 2020

Attendance: Patricia Crittenden, Clark Baim, Bente Nilsen, Peter Schernhardt, Shiqin Shen, Agnes von Wyl (minutes)

1. Approve/revise the minutes of 88th meeting:
 - The minutes are approved without revision.
2. Next meeting September 8th 2020, same time as usual. Topic: DMM Fellowship (web page is on the way). The August meeting is canceled.
3. October 6: IASA Board meeting with the Ad Hoc Volunteers. To be 90 minutes long.
4. The two years as member of the IASA Ad Hoc Volunteers of some members has completed. Agnes will write an e-mail to them in the name of the Board.
5. DMM Fellowship and Roehampton:
 - IASA is interested in people who are interested and qualified to teach the DMM to the next generation.
 - Roehampton: Roehampton is looking for qualified teachers. Clark and Andrea gave presentations in Roehampton by Zoom; Becca gave the AAI-course.
 - FRI is beginning to give courses for experienced clinicians.
 - Pat, Clark and Susan Spieker are going to establish courses in family functioning formulation.
 - We have to further reflect how to support Roehampton.
6. DMM Forum: Alex Jack and Stephanie Wilson will run the Forum from a new website. We discuss the possibilities of a YouTube Channel with Pat's talks and discussions of Clark, Becca and Andrea about specific aspects.
Caitlin Brown will help with the forum.
7. Loving and Learning: IASA will pay for the facsimile edition to be produced. The book will be available as a printed book or a pdf. It will be available on Amazon. The income goes to IASA.
The book is also very interesting for China. Therefore, it will be important to translate it to Chinese.
8. Ad Hoc Volunteers (the list is added from Pat's e-mail July 8):
We should have a second person for every task on the board. Karen Hazell Raine will be asked to join the board as assistant secretary.
Pat will invite Stephanie, Alex and Caitlin Brown to join the Ad-Hoc-Board.

Zurich, July 27th 2020, Agnes von Wyl
